fighting for your business

The American Chambers of Commerce in Türkiye, Greece and Bulgaria are organizing the inaugural "AmChams Eurasian Economic Summit" in Istanbul. The Summit will take place on October 24-25, 2024, at the Hilton Bosphorus Istanbul.

Certified by the U.S. Department of Commerce and in partnership with the American Chambers of Commerce in Azerbaijan, Georgia, Kyrgyz Republic, Moldova, Romania, Tajikistan, Ukraine, and Uzbekistan, the Summit will bring together administration officials, state development agencies, business leaders, and investors from across the regions to foster economic collaboration and business partnerships. The Summit will serve as a dynamic platform for networking, dialogue, and the exploration of new business development prospects, strengthening ties between the U.S. and the regional business communities in the SE Europe, Caucasus, and Central Asia regions. We anticipate 200 senior-level participants from various sectors throughout the organizing regions.

On the occasion of the Summit, AmCham Greece is organizing a business mission. Participating companies will have the opportunity to attend the Summit, engage in B2B meetings with key stakeholders and business representatives from the wider region, and take part in relevant industry workshops.
